

Join us in Saving the World One Song at a Time!
The Texas Folk Music Foundation
*Friends Fundraising Drive

The Texas Folk Music Foundation (TFMF) needs your help. TFMF is a 501(c)(3) non-profit corporation, and proud owner and operator of the world-renowned Kerrville Music Festivals, held each year in Kerrville, Texas. TFMF also sponsors music education programs and contests during Festivals. These include the Grassy Hill-Kerrville New Folk Competition for Emerging Songwriters, Professional Development Program for Teachers and Workshops for Roots/Blues Guitar, Songwriters and Harmonica. TFMF actively seeks donations. Your tax-deductible donation as a "Friend of the Foundation" will provide us with a renewable yearly operating base, enabling us to improve the Festivals and its grounds, and create a new year-round programs, concerts and competitions which support singer-songwriters, songwriting, folk music and folk music education in all its forms. Please join us in Friendship. Become a Friend of the Texas Folk Music Foundation and help us fulfill our mission to save the world one song at a time! All contribution to TFMF, a 501(c)3 organization, are fully tax-deductible.

CONTRIBUTIONS BY CHECK:

Contributions may be made by sending a check, payable to TFMF.
Print this form and mail to:

Texas Folk Music Foundation
P.O. Box 290744
Kerrville Texas, 78029-0744

Name: _____

Address: _____

City: _____ State: _____ Zip: _____

Telephone: _____

Email: _____

Privacy statement: The Foundation does not sell its donor's information nor provide lists to unrelated entities. The information you provide may only be used to notify you about programs and events organized by the Foundation or in conjunction with Kerrville Folk Festivals, Inc.

All contributions to TFMF are fully tax deductible; donors will receive an acknowledgement of their contribution.